

Based on your roller coaster building experience, the discussion with your classmates, and the information from the video, write 4 to 6 sentences to explain the roles of gravity, potential energy, kinetic energy, acceleration, and friction in the design of roller coasters.